Conference at a Glance

Join us for a special conference celebrating the 150th anniversary of Frank Lloyd Wright's birth with a symposium at the Museum of Modern Art (see insert for details), tours of private houses by Wright and other important architects, an annual gathering for Wright homeowners and public sites managers, the Wright Spirit Awards and benefit dinner at the Guggenheim, and of course the opportunity to connect with friends old and new. This conference is structured differently than in years past, with all education sessions at MoMA and no events at a conference hotel, so you will have the freedom to stay in your preferred area of New York. We look forward to welcoming you on this landmark year for Wright's legacy.

Conference Co-Chairs
Edith K. Payne | Larry Woodin

New York Conference Committee
Kyle Johnson, Lao Koonen, Tony Maddalena, Patrick J. Mahoney, Roland Reisley, Marsha Sayer

Hotel
Conference attendees are welcome to stay anywhere that fits their preferences and price points. We have limited room blocks at two hotels in Midtown within one mile of MoMA. Conference tours on Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday will depart from and return to these centrally located hotels.

Events

Conservancy Benefit: An Evening at the Guggenheim
September 15, 2017

Experience Wright masterpieces after hours during a special event at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum. The evening began in the Wright-designed auditorium with a presentation by Neil Levine, chair of the Rethinking Frank Lloyd Wright committee, and a tour of the history of Wright's archive moving to New York. Then the 2017 Wright Spirit Awards will be presented by Barry Bergdoll, Janet Parks and Carole Anne Fabian. Following the tour, a dinner and drinks in the magnificent Rotunda. Check back in the future for more details on symposium sessions.

Leadership Circle Dinner
September 13

Following the keynote presentation at MoMA, members of the Leadership, Clerestory and Visionary Circles are invited to a dinner reception hosted by conference presenting sponsor Kohn Pedersen Fox Associates at their world headquarters in the 1927 York & Sawyer-designed high-rise at 11 W. 42nd St. Enjoy dinner and drinks while viewing project models and drawings with a behind-the-scenes look at one of the world's leading architecture firms. By invitation to Leadership, Clerestory and Visionary circle members. No transportation provided.

Homeowners and Public Sites Dinner
Thursday, Sept. 14

This annual gathering is the only event bringing together owners of Wright houses and the staff and docents of public Wright sites nationwide for a can’t-miss networking opportunity.

Join your fellow Wright homeowners and public sites administrators at The Frank Lloyd Wright Archives (6 E. 44th St.), for dinner and a special presentation by Carole Anne Fabian, director of the Archive, and Frank Lloyd Wright Library. On building owners can use the Frank Lloyd Wright Archives. Tickets $70. Specify affiliated house/site. No transportation required.

Raffel and Online Auction
Saturday, Sept. 17

This year, in place of a silent auction, there will be a raffle and online auction. Payment by check payable to Frank Lloyd Wright Building Conservancy. Credit Card (2 for $150) Total Due $300.

Conference Tour
Saturday, Sept. 16

This all-day tour travels to uptown New York and Connecticut for a tour of at least five sites, including the Wright-designed Roland Rustley House (1951) and other houses in the Wright-planned community of Eunoma, the Maximilian Hoffman House (1955), and other sites to be announced. The day concludes with a tour and dinner reception at Grace Farms. Tickets $200. At least one additional site will be included on this tour (to be announced).

Post-Conference Tour
